

All G/T values are based on official information from the satellite owner. Some transponders might have either higher or lower G/T values than indicated.